Dear Parents and Carers

Over the last few weeks, you have received many letters home about the Worthless campaign and will have also seen the media coverage on the television, newspapers and social media.

We have asked you to write to Jeremy Quin, our local MP, the Secretary of State for Education Justine Greening, the Minister for Schools Nick Gibb, and the Prime Minister about the unfairness of the proposed funding formal.

We are now asking you to respond to the Government's consultation document.

It is important and probably the only document that the government will take notice of. The questions aren't easy to understand so we hope the response sheet we have produced will help you reply to the consultation. If you have children at other schools you will have received a slightly different answer sheet from the Worthless campaign, we the governors felt that it was important to personalise the answers to our school and to keep the answers simple. You can personalise your feedback or simply copy the answers word for word. Whatever you decide to do is fine but please respond.

Please pass the response sheet to partners, grandparents, carers, the more responses the better. Every response will count to help make a difference.

Please follow our Fund.Us campaign on facebook and twitter and please share and retweet to help us spread the word that our children aren't worthless.

Thank You

The Governing Body
